AGENDA

1.0 Mission statement read and minutes of last meeting approved

2.0 Community Coordinators Report:

- 2 new NipU students, Sam Levec and Tanner Poole are helping out
- Our other student Mark Pinard-Brown will be going to SSM with the athletes if he can get the time off
- Donations have been coming in for the Silent Auction table for the OHL Big Game. All of the prizes that were not picked up (after numerous phone calls) from the Penny Sale we had will be added to the list of prizes
- Polar Plunge registration will be held Friday March 1st at Widdifield school from

- 7 to 9pm. Evelyn and Liz will help Shannon with this
- Sports Hall of Fame has nominated the National team as recipients this year. Shannon and Rob are invited as they were co-coaches. Tickets are $50.00/person so the executive will cover half the price since this could be a hardship for the athletes....Shannon looking to see if we could get a business to sponsor the other half of the cost
 - Shannon will also talk to Brian Risk about the AC/DC dilemma....to see if the cover band is giving us the donation promised
 - March 31st will be an Athlete Ambassador course put on by Head Office...lunches to be provided
 - Nipissing Reader Volunteer of the Month is none other than our own Diane Woods....Janet Zimbalatti from the Bingo hall will write the article....congrats Diane!!
 - May 5th is the Chris Thacker Memorial Powerlifting tournament at Commerce Court

3.0 Community Fundraiser Report:

- Fundraising opportunity to provide bag lunches for a powerlifting tournament put on by Larry Shephard. We made over $400.00 doing this last year
- Liz presented the yearly Unaudited Financial Bingo Statement to the executive and will be submitted to City Hall with a copy of these minutes

4.0 Media Relations Report:

- Ads for the dance were sent to media and Larry Shephard sent the powerlifting results to media

5.0 Registrar's Report:

- Athlete phone numbers were updated by Heather and given to athlete reps for our phone tree

6.0 Treasurer's Report:
